

OFLA Annual Report
AATF-Ohio
April, 2014 Conference

Current Officers through end of 2013-2014 academic year:

President – Pascale Abadie

Vice-president – Lucas Hoffman

Treasurer – Kathy Lewton

The American Association of Teacher of French Ohio chapter sent Lucas Hoffman, AATF-Ohio Vice President to Providence, Rhode Island in July, 2013 to participate in their Future Leaders workshop. AATF-Ohio President Pascale Abadie presented a workshop with Kirsten Halling. Both Lucas and Pascale attended a networking session on discussing strategies on running effective state chapter.

In September, 2013, AATF-Ohio conducted its tenth annual immersion weekend in Mohican State Park. President Pascale Abadie planned special events to commemorate this anniversary with special gifts and tasting of French drinks. AATF-Ohio will continue with its eleventh immersion weekend this fall.

AATF-Ohio affiliate member Lucas Hoffman attended the board retreat and all board meetings to network with other affiliates and plan for the OFLA conference. Lucas Hoffman and AATF-OH officers communicated regularly with each other and state members via email announcing job opportunities, French outings, etc. Lucas Hoffman wrote articles for the Cardinal. AATF-Ohio officers submitted and are conducting sessions at the 2014 OFLA conference (AATF Movie Club, AATF Business Meeting, and AATF Swap Shop).

At the April, 2014 board meeting, AATF-Ohio will be electing a new vice-president for 2014-2016 (president for 2016-2018) and treasurer for 2014-2017.

Lucas Hoffman will be hosting a social/cultural excursion to the Louvre exhibition at the Toledo Museum of Art for French teachers in the NW Ohio area.

Respectfully submitted,
Lucas Hoffman
